Hi Everyone,

SCRAPBOOK RETREAT

As everyone settles back into school routines, it means, we women finally have some FREE time to catch up on our scrapbooking projects!. Okay I know our time is never free but nevertheless... HKMemory Chest is happy to announce its 4th SCRAPBOOK RETREAT which will be taking place on Saturday, September 11th.

I am busily looking at some of the new releases from Summer CHA to see what new products, we will be debuting! I love introducing NEW products and brands! This retreat we are going to focus on what a Sizzix machine can really do. Although I do love our Slice machine, there is something to be said for an old fashioned crank that doesn't need to be charged! Sizzix has really upped its game with some great dies for cutting and embossing. We will be offering a special shortly for anyone who would like to PRE-ORDER these machines to pick up at the scrapbook retreat as well as the Slice machine.

A Scrapbook Retreat is the perfect break to have a little rejuvenation and "me time" doing something you love. We enjoy catching up with new and old scrapbookers! Beginners and experienced scrapbookers welcome!

FALL SCRAPBOOK RETREAT

Date and Time: Saturday Sept. 11th 10am to 10pm

Place: Discovery Bay Community Centre, 99 Siena Avenue, Discovery Bay

This is the newly opened community centre which a fantastic big room with a ton of natural lighting making it the ideal setting for scrapbooking!

How to Get There: Bus No C9 from the ferry takes you directly to the Community Centre. It's super easy and we'll always send someone to find you if you get lost!

What is a retreat?

For those who have never been to a scrapbook retreat, it is a way to have a min-vacation, doing what you love, meet with scrappers from all over Hong Kong, get new inspiration, start or finish off those pages you've been meaning to get to, participate in scrapping challenges and scrapbook games, learn new techniques and most importantly have fun! The time is meant for you to do as much scrapbooking or as little as you want. The key to a successful retreat and getting a lot done is to plan your layouts ahead of time.... this you can do with me at either the DB shop or Book Works, if you need help. So, pack up your favorite scrapbooking supplies to have two whole days (or one if you prefer) of uninterrupted scrapbook time.

What does the retreat price include?

1. A welcome pack with cool scrapbooking things of course!
2. A class kit: This is a kit class pack that you can do on your time at the retreat or take home with you to do later. Class details will be emailed separately to all registered participants.
3. Scrapbook kit challenge which includes a scrapbook kit.
4. Pizza Dinner Tea & Coffee
5. Evening Scrapbook game with prizes for everyone. (Just a little diverting entertainment for after dinner! Always my favorite. This one is GOOD!)
6. Surprise Scrapbook Challenge
7. Wrap up Prize giving session!
8. Tool demonstrations.
9. Shared tools and stamps for communal use.

What Will I Need to Bring?

1. Your basic scrapbooking supplies such as cutter, scissors, adhesive, journaling pens, inks etc.
2. If your goal is to get a lot of layouts done, PLAN your pages. To maximize your time at the retreat, plan out your pages with pictures already matched to papers and embellishments. Have an idea in your head of what you will do on a given layout and then write it down. Come see me in the Discovery Bay shop or at Bookworks if you need help with this. I will posting which days I will be available at Book Works shortly.

3. Pack your lunch and bring a shared snack that you can donate to the whole. If everyone does this, we will have plenty of variety for tea time. I will have paper plates, napkins, plastic cutlery. This worked so well at the last retreat that I gained a few pounds sadly.

4. Bring water and your preferred beverage if other than tea or coffee.
