Atlanta, GA

Vision Event Designs, LLC, an Atlanta-area event planning business, was recently featured on Bravo’s hit series “The Real Housewives of Atlanta”. The episode titled “Better Tardy than Never” aired on October 1st and with over 3 million viewers.

Owners Dayanna L. Robinson and Rona Dana (Morris-Hester) opened up the show with a consultation with Atlanta “Housewife” Kim Zolciak. Ms. Zolciak engaged the creative duo to present her with design ideas for her birthday party.

“We are incredibly excited about the exposure our national TV appearance has given us”, said President and Co-Founder Dayanna Robinson. “It was an honor to have the opportunity to work with Ms. Zolciak again.” Previous experience with the RHOA cast member included the planning and design of her wig party which aired on the episode “Throwing Shade” on September 10th.

Vision Event Designs was formed in 2007 by Robinson and Morris-Hester. The company offers event planning & design services for weddings, social events and corporate events. Their mission is to provide innovative event solutions that delight their customers, and unite their clients vision with their event design ingenuity.
