

After the Sunrise

Verse 1- Sometimes in this life our bodies are grieved with pain;

we pray and call out to Jesus in His name.

We beg for mercy to help bear the load, and with His sweet anointing he'll touch us to go on.

Chorus- After the Sunrise we'll be going home.

When Jesus steps out we'll head straight to His throne.

He'll say enter in, child you've kept the faith.

After the Sunrise we'll be going home.

Verse 2- Oh I can't wait to get there oh the sights I will see.

Why there's so many loved ones who've gone ahead of me.

We'll sit down with Jesus and worship at his feet.

Then we'll get up and stroll down that golden street.
