

He's Coming Again

Chorus: He's coming again, in the twinkling of an eye.

He's coming again, we're gonna meet him in the sky.

We'll work until the trumpet sounds and then we will be Heaven bound,

And there we'll live forever, for I know He's coming again.

Verse 1: Some folks down here don't understand why we plan to go to church and sit and listen to the preacher and what he has to say. He tells about the Bible and how Christ died and gave his life. So we might live forever when Jesus comes again.

Chorus

Verse 2: We worry over problems and things we can't control; we won't give them to Jesus and let the burdens roll. We can't be like our savior if we don't live in His favor and let our light shine for Him until He comes again.
