

Texas Energy Group Announces Another Successful Well in Karnes County, Texas

Texas Energy Group, LLC (TEG) would like to formally announce the successful drilling and testing of the McCaskill #1 well, located in Karnes County, Texas.

For Immediate Release

Austin, TX - February 1, 2011 – Texas Energy Group, LLC. (TEG) announced today another successful completion in the Upper Gulf Coast, located in Southern Karnes County, Texas.

TEG owns a non-operated working interest in the McCaskill #1 well drilled recently to a depth of approximately 9,700'. The well encountered five pay zones in the prolific middle Wilcox formation.

The well was completed several weeks ago in one of the five zones and has averaged 1700 MCFGPD and 44 BOPD in the month of December. TEG is continuing to enjoy its long standing relationships with companies within its own back yard of Texas. "Our operators and partners bring great value to our drilling projects when we get these types of opportunities," said Waylan Johnson, President of Texas Energy Group, LLC.

Partners for this project included Hurd Enterprises, Ballard Exploration and others.
