

Texas Energy Group, LLC (TEG) Announces the Opening of their Geophysical Office

Texas Energy Group, LLC (TEG) would like to formally announce the opening of their new Geophysical Office located in Port Aransas, Texas.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Austin, TX – February 9, 2012- Texas Energy Group, LLC (TEG) is pleased to announce the expansion of their company to the city of Port Aransas, Texas. TEG and its operating entity Resaca Resources, LLC (Resaca) opened a new Geophysical Office located at 2621 Hwy 361, Ste D Port Aransas, Texas.

“Texas Energy Group is dedicated to expanding its capabilities and expertise and we believe that our new Geophysical Office will allow for such,” stated Waylan Johnson, President of Texas Energy Group, LLC. He further stated, “This new office represents the commitment we have to our Partners and team. We feel blessed to be able to afford this opportunity to our skilled geologists and geophysicists. Being able to utilize the latest and greatest technology and software truly creates a very positive edge for a smaller oil company like TEG.”

The Geophysical Office will serve as a home base for many of TEG’s Geologists and Engineers and will allow them a more technically advanced facility.
