

... let justice
surge like waters and goodness like an unfailing stream.

—AMOS 5:24

Responsibility Rehabilitation & Restoration

A Symposium on Crime, Punishment and the Common Good in California

AUGUST 3 & 4, 2012

Register early – space is limited.

Responsibility Rehabilitation & Restoration

A Symposium on Crime, Punishment and the Common Good in California

Our Vision

- » Raise awareness of restorative justice as a better system of justice for victims, offenders and communities
- » Offer Best and Emerging Practices that will bring us closer to this transformative model
- » Engage participants in a Call to Action for this change

Who Should Attend

Victims, Offenders, Attorneys, Judges, Educators, Police, Counselors, Academics, Social Workers, Correctional Officers, Public Planners, Probation Officers, Parole Officers, Community Leaders, Correctional Staff & Administration Personnel, Chaplains, Clergy, Religious and all others involved in or impacted by the state's criminal justice system.

Save the Date

AUGUST 3 & 4, 2012

Loyola Marymount University
1 LMU Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90045

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Friday | 5:00-10:30pm

- » Meet the Speakers Reception
- » Opening Comments: Roderick Hickman, former Secretary, CA Dept. of Corrections & Rehabilitation
- » Keynote: Azim Khamisa, father of murdered son, and Ples W. Felix, Jr., grandfather of assailant, are dedicated to ending youth violence together through the Tariq Khamisa Foundation
- » Prophetic Theater: Spoken Word; Two Mothers
- » Film Screening: Meeting with a Killer

Saturday | 8am-4:30pm

- » Opening Comments
- » Keynote: The Honorable Gail Brewster Bereola, Judge of the Superior Court of CA, County of Alameda. She led a collaboration of restorative justice efforts to implement a county-wide strategic plan for juvenile justice, foster care and school systems in Alameda County
- » Panel 1: Voices of Law Enforcement, Policy Makers and the Legal System will address the current state of California's Criminal Justice System
- » Panel 2: Voices of Victim, Offender and Community impacted by the current system
- » Panel 3: Voices of Community Organizations sharing Best Practice and Emerging Models
- » Call to Action

California Catholic Conference
1119 K Street 2nd Floor • Sacramento, CA 95814

Sponsored by the California Catholic Conference

Co-Sponsored by Loyola Marymount University and Loyola Law School

MCLE and Continuing Education Credits available.

Housing available in LMU Apartments

For More Information:

- » Visit us online: restorejustice.com
- » Email: jharper@cacatholic.org
- » Call: 916.313.4024
- » En español: restorejustice.com