

Dr. Jim Brandon, Director of Leadership Capacity Building, College of Alberta School Superintendents joins the University of Calgary.

The College of Alberta School Superintendents is pleased to congratulate our Director of Leadership Capacity Building, Dr. Jim Brandon, on his appointment to the Faculty of Education at the University of Calgary. Dr. Brandon will assume the position of Director of Professional Programs and Assistant Professor in Educational Leadership, July 1, 2011. This position dovetails with the professional learning leadership Dr. Brandon has provided over the past four years as CASS President and subsequently Director of Leadership Capacity Building.

Dr. Brandon has a long and varied association with the College of Alberta School Superintendents having served in every table officer position including president in 2007-2008. In 2009 Jim was awarded the CASA XL Award of Excellence for Alberta. Dr. Jim Brandon says, “As a confirmed “CASS Lifer”, I am so proud to have worked with so many great system educational leaders over the past 25 years. Building on the legacy of Lee Lucente and past Executives, Kath, Barry and our current Board are transforming the College into Alberta’s premier learning leadership organization. I hope to continue to work with many of you over the coming years through my research interests in system and school learning leadership.”

CASS President, Barry Litun states, “ Jim’s move to the University of Calgary, while a huge loss to CASS, will definitely benefit future educational leaders in our province. Jim has worked very hard to expand the professional learning opportunities for CASS members over the past two years, and leaves as his legacy to CASS a wide range of leadership capacity building initiatives. We wish him the very best in his new position.”

Recruitment will begin immediately to fill this position.
