

✧ January and Mondays to me are a re-set. I grew up with and loved the Anne of Green Gables series. Anne's teacher, Miss Stacey once told her, "Tomorrow is always fresh, with no mistakes in it." So, after all of Christmas is put up and house cleaned, I set about in January to learn something new or organize and throw out things not needed. I also go up to my old friend, the sewing room, a place not able to be visited as much in the holiday season. It is a quiet month. The holidays are filled with cooking and bustle and carols, but oh, January is clean and quiet with thoughts of projects to sew, stitch and create. So, hopefully, you are able to set about a new year with the excitement of new adventures, be it outdoors or a project inside. ✧

ITEMS OF NOTE:

 In November and December we took in a total of 6,549.47! Remarkable! Thank you Carla and Lisa for your tireless help with this!

 Our annual rent for the four units has gone up significantly. It is now $8136.00 per annum. We are so grateful that we were gifted the grant monies, as this will very much defray the cost and not deplete our budget as much. If you have any ideas for additional grants, please let Carla Beasley by email.
