

General Beauregard Lee has "spoken".

🌸 At least for the south, spring will be coming to rescue us sooner than later. 🌸

*Just a quick note to pass along the name and contact information of the man who repairs sewing machines, sergers and sharpens scissors.

He is located in Buford and previously worked at Atlanta Sewing Center.

* Workday at the Warehouse was moved from January (frigid weather) to February 13th. Note that it is a TUESDAY.

Items Needed for March:

Boy sweaters

Boy quilts

Girl receiving blankets

Girl lap-front shirts

Girl fabric caps

Girl changing pads

Girl/Boy tote bags

Girl/Boy sleepers

We really don't like harping on this, but we are still receiving items that are not 'as-per-pattern'. Please note the following:

Quilt size should be 36" x 45" - give or take an inch or so, but not 36" x 36"

Bibs should be either girl or boy - not girl on one side and boy on the other.

Sleep sacks should be made with solid polar fleece for the body and print for the sleeves. That is how the polar fleece is purchased.

Changing pads should not be flannel on both sides.

Distribution:

February: 62 layettes/1922 items/14 burials

Year to Date: 110 layettes/ 3458 items/18 burials

A WHOPPIN' 62 bags this month! 🗨️

Why? A few of the hospitals increased their amounts due to better organization with how many are in need.

Yay for them, the moms/babies and us!
