FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney Kenneth D. Roth Joins Becker Meisel

Livingston, N.J., December 28, 2010 – The law firm of Becker Meisel has announced the addition of Kenneth D. Roth as counsel to the firm, practicing in its Cherry Hill office. His areas of practice include real estate, environmental, land use, community association and corporate law. He has represented corporations, municipalities, planning and zoning boards in all aspects of real estate and business transactions, formation of business entities, purchase and sale of commercial, retail, office and apartment developments, medical, dental, commercial and industrial asset sales and purchases.

“Ken brings over thirty years of experience in real estate, environmental and corporate matters. His addition strengthens our existing Real Estate Finance, Investment and Development Practice by allowing us to offer experienced environmental and land use counsel to our clients and helps the firm further expand its South Jersey presence.” said Becker Meisel Managing Member Martin L. Borosko.

Among Mr. Roth’s successes is a favorable verdict in the representation of the Monsanto Company in defense of a citizen’s suit under the Clean Water Act, reducing the plaintiff’s claims of 237 violations to 38 violations and claimed penalties of $17,000,000 to $380,000. His environmental clients have included the former Jersey Central Power & Light Company, City Federal Savings Bank, Rohm & Haas Company, American Cyanamid Company, Monsanto, Witco Corporation, as well as various smaller companies and individuals affected by environmental laws and regulations. He has counseled clients in the areas of the Industrial Site Recovery Act (ISRA), the Superfund Act (CERCLA), the Clean Water Act, the underground storage tank regulations, and the New Jersey Spill Act.

Mr. Roth said, “Joining Becker Meisel allows me to offer a wider range of sophisticated legal services to my existing clients and help grow the firm’s practice areas in the greater South Jersey area.”

Mr. Roth is past president of the Burlington County Bar Association, and he was a Trustee of the Camden County Bar Association from 1990 to 1993. He is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and the Environmental Law Section of the State Bar Association, where he has served as Section Delegate to the General Council. He is also named in “Who's Who” in American Law.

Mr. Roth has earned his B.A. in political science from Long Island University, and he graduated cum laude with his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law – Camden, where he was an editor of the Law Journal.
