FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney Richard C. Klein to Head Becker Meisel Family Law Group

Cherry Hill, N.J., March 24, 2010 – Becker Meisel announced today that attorney Richard C. Klein will head the firm’s new family law group.

According to Becker Meisel Managing Partner, Martin Borosko, “Richard is a well-known family law attorney who has provided the South Jersey community with high quality legal representation for over three decades.”

Formerly Chair of the Family Law Department of Spector Gadon & Rosen, Mr. Klein has practiced family law for over 35 years and has served on countless state and county Bar Association committees. He has appeared on such media staples as Good Morning America, World News Tonight, Inside Edition, CNN, CNBC and been written about in such publications as The Philadelphia Inquirer, Parents Express and The Boston Globe.

Klein stated, “I am very excited about the opportunity to help bring the wide-ranging resources of Becker Meisel to bear on the family law needs of individuals in South Jersey.”

Klein and the family law group will be situated in the firm’s new office located at the Woodland Falls business complex in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. The firm also maintains offices in Livingston, NJ, Shrewsbury, NJ and New York City.

Becker Meisel is a mid-market firm serving the New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia corridor. The firm provides litigation, transactional, counseling and regulatory representation to clients ranging from major multi-national corporations to local businesses, families and individuals.
