FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney Suzanne Iazzetta Joins Becker Meisel

Livingston, N.J., August 23, 2011 – The law firm of Becker Meisel has announced the addition of Suzanne Iazzetta as counsel to the firm, practicing in its Livingston office, handling both debtor-side and creditor-side bankruptcy and restructuring matters. Previously, Ms. Iazzetta was an associate at Lowenstein Sandler, where she spearheaded the development of the business and finance curriculum at Lowenstein Sandler University, the education arm of the firm, in addition to playing an integral role in numerous high-profile bankruptcy cases.

“Our firm has long been recognized for the strength of its corporate bankruptcy group and is committed to continually enhancing the services it provides,” said Becker Meisel Managing Member Martin L. Borosko, “Adding Suzanne and her experience in representing both debtors and creditors in sophisticated bankruptcy and restructuring matters further demonstrates that commitment.”

Ms. Iazzetta is the founder of the Quixote Law Association, a fellowship of attorneys and other individuals who believe in using the law to fight for what is right, and true, and just. She serves as the secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Oskar Schindler Performing Arts Center in West Orange, New Jersey, indulging her deep love of music, and serves as pro bono counsel to Coming Home Rescue, Inc., a non-profit organization in Rockaway, N.J. that rescues, cares for, and finds new homes for homeless and unwanted dogs. She is also member of the advisory board of LegalBizDev, an organization that helps law firms increase profitability by improving project management, business development, and alternative fee structures.

Ms. Iazzetta says, “Becker Meisel is a dynamic and innovative firm that is at the forefront of the new generation of law firms -- firms that are lean and flexible enough to provide first class, sophisticated responses to clients’ legal issues without losing focus of the clients’ real needs – including time and budgetary constraints. One thing you will never get at Becker Meisel is ‘business as usual,’ which is why I am very excited to be the newest member of the Becker Meisel team.”

Ms. Iazzetta has served as a Judicial Law Clerk to The Hon. Katharine S. Hayden of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. In addition, Ms. Iazzetta served as a Law Clerk at Litvak and Trifiolis in Cedar Knolls, New Jersey, and as an Intern at the Office of the Public Defender in Somerset County, New Jersey.
