

Do you wonder how to make your faith part of your everyday life?

Would you like to become more spiritual, but aren't sure where to begin?

Join a small prayer and faith sharing group!

Deepen your relationship with Christ while getting to know your fellow parishioners.

Pray together for your own needs and those of the community.

Learn from one another as you develop your spiritual life in a small community of friends.

There are several groups forming now, and you may join at any time. Pick the day and time that works best for you.

Morning Group:

Wednesday, on the first & third weeks of the month; 9:30 am led by Mary Concilio

Evening Groups:

Thursday, on the first & third weeks of the month; 7 pm
led by Joan McGinley

You are encouraged to join a group, or form your own group.

Join a group today by calling the rectory with your contact information: 610-867-5039, or email Fidelia: fideljasa@gmail.com

We look forward to hearing from you!
