Promise of a Pledge

Psalm 50:14-15

Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High: And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

God always keeps His word to supply are needs and will always back the word of His people when they make a vow or pledge to give into the kingdom of God. God supplies your need by giving you the opportunity to sow a seed that will bring a harvest to you. When you make a vow, it opens the door for God to deliver you from trouble.

I believe that every battle in life is fought and won with a seed sown. God promised a seed to destroy the devil. That seed is Jesus! Hannah is one of the greatest examples of how God produces the promise of a pledge. Hannah vowed to God that if He would give her a son, that she would return Him to the Lord. God did as she said and then gave her five more children. Isaiah said that God gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater.

God promises to return the seed you sow and then multiply it in accordance with your faith, 30, 60, even hundredfold. Notice that God does not promise to give seed to everyone, only to those who are proven faithful to sow the seed they have.

Hannah did not have a lack of seed, her husband Elkanah gave her seed. Her womb was not conceiving the seed sown. God miraculously opened her womb and made the seed come forth when she committed the fruit of her womb to Him.

When you determine to bring a vow or pledge to the Lord, He will cause the seed you have vowed to locate you and make the seed you have and sow bring forth fruit. As long as you are willing to deposit the seed in the soil of the kingdom when you get it, He will call for the seed to find you.

When Israel was released from captivity they were them that dreamed. God caused them to return to the land that their fathers dwelt in seventy years before they went into captivity. The people came out with nothing in hand, but God said that He would return them to the land and would call for the seed to come to them.

God knows where the money that you need to sow is located. When you are willing to move towards the land of promises with a desire to sow the seed God gives you, money will magnetically attract towards you.

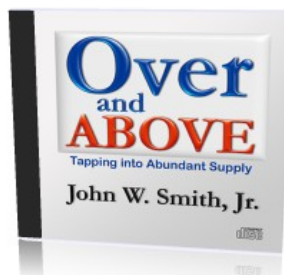

When you make a vow you are coming into agreement with God to be the sower that He can count on to plant the seed. Once you give your seed, praise the Lord and He will make the rain to fall on it and increase.

God is the Lord of the harvest. That means that He alone can cause seed to come forth and bud, however, unless you plant the seed, God is unable to command the harvest for you.

Mankind has the exclusive power to sow seeds on the earth. God gave that power over to Adam in the garden and God has given that same power to you. We take dominion of the resources of the earth by sowing seed. The soil you sow into will determine the size of the harvest. Sow in faith and expect a tremendous harvest today.

Miracles

A couple of weeks ago I got a call from a family that had a terrible car accident. Their 7-year-old son Shawn was en route with his Grandmother to meet the rest of the family in Indianapolis, Indiana. The car they were traveling in hit a blown tire in the road. The car then flipped and rolled over five times before coming to a rest with Shawn hanging out of the car which was partially lying on top of him. He arrived at the hospital unconscious. My wife and I immediately took authority over the situation in the name of Jesus, rebuking the spirit of death and declaring the report of the Lord. We drove that evening to the hospital in Champaign, Illinois and arrived at 3:00 am. Shawn's father fell sobbing and crying into my arms when we entered into the room. We laid hands on Shawn and declared that he was whole and well. The next morning the doctors had told the family that Shawn's brain was severely injured and that the brain had separated causing him to be partially brain dead. Again we took authority over this report, believing the report of the Lord over the doctors. That afternoon Shawn began to respond by crying and moving around. The attending physician came in and said that he felt Shawn would recover, all though it would take a long time. Within days Shawn was awake, knew everyone and was accelerating in the rehab center on his way to complete recovery. Last Sunday the family brought Shawn to church to testify of God's goodness. This is an undeniable miracle. I will add that this family had just sown a $1,000 seed with my ministry for a breakthrough in their life just two weeks before the accident. I believe that their faith and the seed sown served as a testimony before God. I further believe that the seed protected Shawn and his grandmother. The devil cannot cross the line you establish when giving to God.

Partners

July was the lowest record for giving from our partners in the history of the station. We realize that many are struggling financially and that is why I teach Biblical economics on the program. If it is in your power to give any extra to help us shore up the difference in our monthly budget, please do. 24-Hour Christian TV needs your support in Kentuckiana. Thanks for standing with us in partnership throughout the years. Your gift is reaching thousands in this city and millions around the world. Send your best gift today to WJYL-TV PO Box 2605 Clarksville, Indiana 47131, Thanks! God Bless you and your family!
