Souper Bowl of Caring

On February 11th, our church family came together for a "souper" delicious luncheon, voting for our favorite team (or the commercials), and also Team Trivia with rounds of questions about the Super Bowl, Disney character colors and True/False on weird Trivia. Many thanks to those that helped setup, made delicious soup (there were 11!), made desserts, cornbread, plus brought crackers, bread and helped cleanup ... wow!

From start to finish we had a wonderful time and the true winners are The Mustard Seed and the Nutterfort Backpack Program! Collected were 266 items + $180 in $$$.

—John 16:33

First United Methodist Church of Clarksburg, West Virginia

The Grapevine

On the first Sunday of Lent, I shared with you that the Lenten season is an opportunity for us to experience a holy disruption in our lives. In other words, Lent is a time for us to examine our lives and allow God to transform our hearts and minds into the likeness of Christ. Over the course of many years, people of faith have embraced the spiritual disciplines as a way to experience a holy disruption. In our context and cultural setting, it seems that the spiritual discipline of fasting is the most popular.

However, fasting should not be understood as simply giving something up. The discipline of fasting should be understood as giving something up to make room for God's work in our lives and the world. In short, we should not understand fasting, and Lent for that matter, as a season that leads us from a chocolate to a non-chocolate existence. If we were to give up chocolate for Lent, we must also ask ourselves how giving up chocolate brings transformation to our lives and our world. And this question is true for anything we fast from during this season.

A few years ago, I saw a post on social media quoting Pope Francis. The quote speaks of the spiritual discipline of fasting during the Lenten season. I offer this for you with the hope that you may experience some holy disruption in your life this Lent.

DO YOU WANT TO FAST THIS LENT?

In the words of Pope Francis

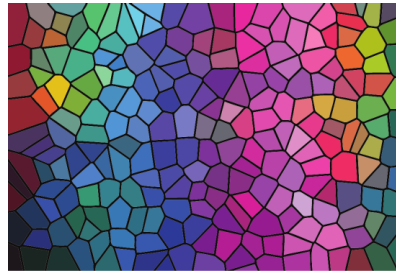

- ~Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- ~Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- ~Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- ~Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- ~Fast from worries and have trust in God.
- ~Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- ~Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- ~Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
- ~Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- ~Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- ~Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

Just Exactly What Goes on Here? By: Shelley Spellman

I was contemplating what is happening here at FUMC, so I began making a list and was astounded at the activity that is present on a daily, weekly, monthly, and yearly basis. As a member of the congregation, I sometimes forget the impact that our church is having on our community. Did you know that all of these activities are occurring, right here, right now in our facility?

- Winter Shelter serving both dinner and breakfast daily
- Grab-and-Go meals to beginning on March 2nd
- Feed My Sheep, serving a hot meal the 3rd Monday of every month
 - AA/NA meetings multiple times weekly
 - Friends Feeding Friends, every Wednesday evening outside FUMC on 2nd Street
- Resilience Collaborative, housed on the 3rd floor offering medical, housing, and other assistance. They meet with clients in the fellowship hall twice a week, as well as transport clients to medical appointments. They offer assistance in a variety of other ways, as well.
- Open Heart Ministries, housed on the 3rd floor offering utility and rental assistance, as well as providing for various other requests, as they are able.
- WVWC Center for Restorative Justice, serves a hot meal each Friday, as well as facilitating a Healing Circle
- Shower Ministry twice weekly providing showers for those experiencing homelessness.
- Food Backpack Program, serving 150 weekend meals for students at Nutterfort Elementary School
 - Drug Court Graduation annually
 - Prayer Shawl Ministry
 - Monastic Meal, every Tuesday
 - Bible/Book studies that meet 4-6 weeks, three to four times a year
 - Mustard Seed Collection
 - Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets for families in need
 - Angel Tree at Christmas
 - Various projects undertaken by the Outreach Committee
 - Children's Church every Sunday during the worship service
 - 2nd Sunday Family Funday
 - Youth meetings and outings
 - Fighting Hunger with The Souper Bowl of Caring Lunch

All of this is happening in addition to our worship service. I am positive that I have missed some mission, ministry, or activity, but WOW! One of my favorite books of the Bible is James. More specifically James 2:14-24, "Faith without works is dead". I came across this section of James on a "open the bible and see what speaks to me" day, and it has resonated with me since. So, just in case you were wondering, "Just what goes on here at FUMC?"

To the First UMC (Clarksburg) family -

First, I wanted to take an opportunity to extend my sincere thanks for your warm send-off on February 11 during worship, as well as the incredibly generous gift you gave me. I hardly feel deserving of it, but am grateful nevertheless.

Second, and perhaps more importantly, I want to make sure that each of you knows how much I have appreciated the opportunity to work, worship, and make music with you these past seven and a half years. My tenure here has been filled with great challenges (remember COVID?) but also with greater learning and growth. Through it all, I've been blessed to rely on the constant support of the congregation, the church leadership, and my staff colleagues; without this support the music ministry of First Church would simply not be possible. I deeply respect the necessary and spiritual work you have set yourself to doing to address the many unmet needs in the local community. I also continue to admire your strong commitment to high quality music in worship, which predates me and which I am certain will continue well into the future. I'm confident in saying that whoever you select to lead music ministry at First Church will be blessed beyond measure by your gifts, graces, and support.

And so thank you, all, for everything you've done and will continue to do to make First UMC (Clarksburg) a shining beacon of warmth, hospitality, service, and love. While I am sad to be leaving, I carry with me a profound appreciation for all the many blessings you've given me these past years.

Sing on, friends!
