Friendship Christian School Welcomes Dr. Tom Davis as new Principal
For School Year 2010-2011

Suwanee, GA., May 14, 2010—Friendship Christian School announced today that Dr. Tom Davis has accepted the position of Principal for the school. Dr. Davis comes to Friendship Christian School after recently retiring from Big Creek Elementary School in Cumming, GA. He helped this school win many awards, including being recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School, two time winner of the title - Georgia School of Excellence, and receiving twice the Georgia Platinum Award for Academic Achievement. Dr. Davis has an Educational Doctorate from the University of Georgia and has a long career of educational management.

“We are extremely excited to have Dr. Davis on our team here at Friendship Christian School,” said Marty Cochran, Headmaster of FCS. “FCS is dedicated to providing a strong academic education while encouraging spiritual growth and we believe Dr. Davis will be able to lead our team and facilitate our goals”.

About Friendship Christian School

A non-denominational independent Christian School, located in the South Forsyth/Johns Creek area, Friendship Christian School serves grades preschool to 12th grade. The educational environment is one where students are challenged and learning is customized for each student. Friendship Christian School offers small class sizes where the teachers and staff individualize each student’s education with a relational, experiential, academically challenging, and life preparing curriculum. FCS is accredited through the GAC / Georgia Accrediting Commission in all levels (Elementary, Middle, and High Schools) and is a member school of ACSI.
