

Dear Friend,

There are things all of us intend to do but simply put off! We hope that is the case with you and that you will take this time to become a member of The Greenbrier Historical Society.

When you join this non-profit organization you will become a part of a wonderful entity that:

- Preserves our immense archival treasures including original documents signed by Thomas Jefferson and Patrick Henry as well as many Greenbrier County family history documents
- Supports educational opportunities for school children at The North House Museum. This wonderful historic building was the home of pioneer John A. North and later the Star Tavern as well as home to many leaders of Greenbrier Women's College
- Reaches out to over 3,500 annual visitors who tour the museum and archives for special exhibits, such as the Bridal Gown Exhibit, Antique Teddy Bear Exhibit, Civil War Artifact Exhibit and Fine Quilt and Coverlet Exhibit
- Brings many additional visitors to the area to use the rich resources in our archives
- Participates in the maintenance of our historical past, conserving items that might otherwise fade away and presenting them to the public in a meaningful setting
- Ensures that the art, history and culture of our region is preserved for present and future generations

As a member, you will receive The Greenbrier Historical Society Journal, the Appalachian Springs News Letter and enjoy unlimited free admission to the Museum.

Please join countless others in our community and across our country who have taken the leap to support The Greenbrier Historical Society, The North House Museum, and The Archives. The history of the Greenbrier Valley Area is richly varied and the Greenbrier Historical Society is the area's most significant custodian. From mining and logging to farming and education, the activities of our ancestors inform our future. This treasure trove must be preserved for our children. Return your completed membership form today along with your tax-deductible contribution that will help eliminate the debt incurred by the Millennium Restoration of The North House in 2004.

If we can be of any assistance please call 304.645.3398. Thank you for your interest and support.

Sincerely,

John B. Arbuckle, Jr.
