Remember 'Beast from the East'?
Are you prepared for Winter?

Geared towards managers of Business Continuity and/or Emergency Response and the organisation's response team.

Join us either individually or with your organisation's response team to:

- Review response considerations & actions against a series of tabletop exercise scenario injects in a confidential environment.
- Consider the realities of how severe weather could impact your ability to continue business.
- Hear from specialists on ways to further improve your response plans and capabilities.
- Learn about the Transport for Scotland roles, responsibilities and requirements.

Attendance is free for Scottish Continuity members.
