

Dr. Naomi Johnson - Director of Leadership Learning
Role and Responsibilities

- Working with Education Partners to develop the curriculum and plan for the implementation of the In-service Program for Superintendent and Principal Certification.
- Promoting knowledge and understanding of professional practice standards for superintendents, and current & aspiring System Leaders;
- Responding to inquiries and requests for information from members of the public;
- Building capacity of superintendents, and current & aspiring System Leaders to support the implementation of professional practice standards for teachers, principals and school superintendents;
- Providing leadership in the development of implementation initiatives by CASS;
- Using excellent communication skills to build and maintain relationships with all education partners; and
- Providing advice and support to the CASS Board of Directors and Executive Director in matters related to the professional practice standards.