

Colleen Symyrozum-Watt, Director of Leadership Learning
Role and Responsibilities

- Promoting knowledge and understanding of professional practice standards for superintendents, and current & aspiring System Leaders;
- Providing advice and support to the CASS Board of Directors and Executive Director in matters related to the professional practice standards.
- Responding to inquiries and requests for information from members of the public;
- Building capacity of superintendents, and current & aspiring System Leaders to support the implementation of professional practice standards for teachers, principals and school superintendents;
- Supporting the understanding of, and implementation of Alberta Education's Business Plan Outcome 4 - Alberta has excellent teachers, school and school authority leaders;
- Providing leadership in the development of implementation initiatives by CASS;
- Supporting the work of CASS and other education partners with the Leadership and Superintendent Leadership Certification In-Service programs; and
- Representing CASS and / or undertaking leadership responsibilities as authorized by the Executive Director.