

Tiny Stitches October Newsletter

FALL MEANS SWEATER WEATHER!

Thankfully, our babies are not only warm but fashionable as well. These are but a tiny (no pun intended) sampling of the dozens of cute sets we have available to give out. Thank you to our yarn stitchers for coming through with sweaters, socks, hats and afghans each month!

November Needs:

Boy and Girl Changing Pads

Boy and Girl Quilts (We are OUT of Boy ones! 😊)

Boy and Girl Receiving Blankets

Girl Socks

Boy Gowns

Boy Lap-front shirts

Girl Sleep Sacks

 Our bucket of small tote bags runneth over. No more need for these for a while.

 We have changed over seasons as well. That means no more diaper shirts or creepers, and now working on sleep sacks and sweater sets.

ZOOM... I mentioned that we are entertaining using ZOOM for our business meetings. If you are not aware of what it is, it is an application for the computer to use in place of in-person meetings. It has been around for a bit, but COVID made it popular (like crazy popular for businesses, church groups, and many other groups who couldn't meet) ---> We will not be meeting at all in November or December, but wanted to get a feel from our stitchers, if you would actually use the application and want to join in. Please email me, Amy, at amybwilson036@gmail.com or reply here if you like the idea and will try it out in January. May help some of you farther out, feel more included.

Just wanted to make you aware that as well as this newsletter, if you are ever wondering what to sew for this month, it is handily shown on the top bar of the website. (circled below) <https://www.tinystitches.org/>
