

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

I realize that I may be the only one who absolutely loves January; you know, those people who see a flake and get busy waxing their plastic toboggan or sled in gleeful anticipation that we get more than a dusting. I would be such a person. Freeze my tail off for a few minutes of gleeful fun, then inside for a mug of something warm and watch the magical white stuff come down. Ahhhh. So, this newsletter will have all things snowman and flake, Tiny Stitches style. ❄️

Meeting Items of Note:

* A big welcome to our newest stitcher, Barbara Spencer! So glad to have you!

* Huge thank you's to Jill Stubler for all the organizing and planning for our Christmas luncheon and all who helped bake and set up! We had 32 stitchers come from all over, our Hartwell group traveling a great distance! What fun to get to place faces and stories with names. Our most "seasoned" stitcher was also present, Ms. Doris, 102 years young and still stitching for those sweet babies!

*If you are using Joann.com, this is the new bar code to use:

* We have received two large fabric donations! YAY!

In view of the above, we really need to have a workday at the warehouse. We will meet on Saturday the 19th at 9:30 at the warehouse. Things to be accomplished: cutting and shelving fabric (you may want to bring your own scissors), sorting of donated items, general straightening.

* Pam Migneault has begun the paperwork for a new grant proposal for TS. Thank you for all the work you do!

* For the last month or so, we have been packing the layette bags on Pre-pack day, so we can send it with some of our more northern stitchers. That way they do not have an extra day to have to come down. If you need to go to the warehouse after the business meeting, let us know, and someone will be glad to go and let you in.

* The EXPO is upon us! (<http://www.sewingexpo.com/Events/Atlanta,GA.aspx>)

Tiny Stitches will have an informational booth there again this year. If you would like to volunteer at the table, please call Debbie Vickers at (770) 530-2143
