

AUTUMN IS HERE!

Cooler weather and some time off had us venturing a bit west to Ellijay to visit apple orchards and a cidery. Fried pies, fresh cider, several different varieties of Georgia grown apples that made apple butter, apple cinnamon pancakes and apple cake rounded out the fun (and our figures 😊) Living close to the lake now has us a bit wistful that lake season has to be put away for a time, but I am a fall aficionado, so at least there is an upside. So many fun places to explore west and north of us here in Gainesville. If you have a "can't miss" area to explore, please email me. (amybwilson036@gmail.com)

Meeting Notes:

*Beginning in 2023, Business Meetings will occur the first Tuesday, every other month (January/March/May/July/September/November) at Atlanta Sewing Center. The remaining months will be the home base for the Duluth workshop. They will meet the first Tuesday of the month, at ASC at 10:15 on even months. (February/April/June/August/October/December) Newsletters will still continue to be sent every month.

* Atlanta Sewing Center mentioned that they have an opening for a part time position; up to three 8 hour days a week. If you are interested, ask to speak with Louise Duffy at ASC.

* We also have a sewing and embroidery machine for sale. It is a Singer CE 200. (picture following, hopefully, argh!) Asking $200- will go to Tiny Stitches. If you are interested, please contact Susan Brunton (sbrunton.emb@gmail.com)

* October Distribution 52 layettes/1900 items/0 burials
Year to date- 442 layettes/ 15,465 items/19 burials

* New! In addition to our brochure, we are now printing out a Tiny Stitches business/information card! A quick, more carriable way to let people know who we are and what we do and give them access to the website so they can learn more. Workshop leaders will be getting a few to hand out to your groups. Stay tuned!
