APOSTLE ALBERT W. WHITE

Apostle Albert White is a native of Franklin, Louisiana. He is married to his Junior High sweetheart, Pastor Adraine White. They have one daughter, Ariel, and son-in-law, Romell Foster Sr. and three grand-children, Aria, Ania & Romell Jr. Apostle White is the founder and overseer of Abounding Love Ministries in Baton Rouge, Louisiana which was founded in April of 2001.

He is a man of great vision and is full of compassion. He is known by many as a man who has a heart that promotes unity within the Body of Christ. He passionately pursues relationships that cross ethnic, economic and religious barriers. He demonstrates love that goes the extra mile, hence the name, Abounding Love Ministries.

Apostle White has had the opportunity to share the call of God that is upon his life with audiences both nationally and internationally. His vision extends beyond what he sees with his natural eyes and he is determined to help build the lives of people.

He works hard to see to it that the vision comes to pass by being innovative in creating after-school & summer programs, 1st time home buyer's seminars, Setting Your House in Order life management workshops, Unity in the Community outreaches and other events that are designed with the enhancing of our community in mind.

Simply said, Apostle Albert White loves the Lord, loves people and has committed his life to advancing the Kingdom of God.
