Smyrna, Ga – Campbell Middle School will open its doors for the sixth year in a row, on the evening of March 20th from 7-9 pm for an exhilarating game of wheelchair basketball and a night of family fun. The 2010 Celebrity Wheelchair Basketball Jam is a fundraising event open to the public to raise awareness of the importance of healthy lifestyles and sport—for both typically developing and disabled individuals.

Radio personalities Mami Chula (95.5 The Beat) and Lil' Bankhead (V103 The People's Station) will be hosting the event, and Paralympians Gavin Cloy and Carol Hicks will be among the myriad celebrities to participate in this year's event. Other celebrity participants include Mario West (Atlanta Hawks), Mark Selbee (World Champion Kickboxer), Hannibal Navies (San Francisco 49ers), Corrine Van Ryck DeGroot (Professional Kickboxer), Angel Lewis (International basketball player), Jon Shibley (Radio Personality, Lenox Financial Mortgage), Devyne Stephens (Upfront Megatainment Worldwide), Alasia Ballard (America's Next Top Model), Dominique Reese and Anthony Allen (GA Tech Football) and the Atlanta Hawks A-Town Dancers. Athletes from Clark Atlanta University will also be participating.

Dream Makers Youth Foundation is excited about hosting this year's event with Energy Fitness. "Working together with John Lewis and Energy Fitness, we will be able to take community awareness and excitement about disability sports within Metropolitan Atlanta to another level," says Dream Makers Youth Foundation President and Founder, Nikki Wilson. "We are confident that this year's event will be the biggest and best yet."

The event will include a fast-paced game of wheelchair basketball featuring local athletes with disabilities as well as celebrities using sport wheelchairs for the first time. Along with the game there will be food, fun, music and other activities, including special guest performances. Funds raised from this event will support Dream Makers Youth Foundation in providing opportunities for youth with disability to stay active and learn the skills necessary for success in school and life.

"Hosting this event with Dream Makers aligns perfectly with our mission, as we both strive to empower wellness and awareness about a better quality of life," said John W. Lewis, Chief Executive Officer of Energy Fitness. "The evening will definitely be both entertaining and enlightening, and we encourage the community and local businesses to come out and take part in this unique event."
