Biblical Authority

A faint, sketch-like illustration in the background shows Jesus with long hair and a beard, wearing a robe, surrounded by several other figures, likely his disciples, in a setting that appears to be outdoors or a simple interior.

Jesus called His twelve disciples to Him and gave them authority to drive out impure spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

Matthew 10:1

“The Kingdom of heaven has come near. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.”

Matthew 10:7,8

A faint, light-colored sketch of a man with a beard and long hair, wearing a head covering, in a prayerful pose with his hands clasped. It is positioned in the background behind the text.

“I have frequently said that it is not a sin
to be sick or to die.

It is, however, a sin for sickness and death to go unchallenged because there is no one to pray.” John Wesley

Power and Authority

“Heal the sick who are there and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God has come near to you.’”

Luke 10:9

The seventy-two returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name.” Luke 10:17
