NEVER IN VAIN

Each activity matters to God.

In the busyness of daily life, we can easily feel that our efforts are in vain. In moments of self-doubt, we may feel that what we do for our families and for others goes unappreciated. We may get down ourselves, thinking we are not needed. We may even believe God is not pleased with our work. Over and over again, Scripture tells us otherwise. Romans 8:1 tells us there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. As believers, we live in the Spirit, and to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace⁴ (Rom. 8:6). When we are seeking Christ in all we do and allowing the Holy Spirit to guide us, we experience a change in attitude about our daily tasks. We recognize each activity matters to God, to our own spiritual health, to our beloved families, and to those in our churches and communities.
