

STATEMENT OF PRIVACY POLICY
STONEHAVEN PLACE SOUTH HOA, INC.
Effective July 5, 2015

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

The HOA management company is the sole owner of the information collected via this site, including email addresses. Other than publically available information necessary for Association business operations (name and address for billing and legally required notices), we only have access to and only collect information you voluntarily provide to us via email or other direct contact.

We will not distribute, sell, or rent this information to anyone, in any form, at any time, including the publically available information. Limited information may be provided in the context of ordinary business operations to the Association Attorney or Insurance Company under certain circumstances, such as for delinquent account collection, or an insurance claim.

We will use your information to respond to you regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to inform you about HOA information regarding Stonehaven Estates, certain City of Plano or Collin County announcements, or changes to this privacy policy. Contacts may include, but are not limited to: announcements or reminders of Association activities such as Association social events, Board or Annual Meetings, reminders of approaching assessment due dates, distribution of the Association newsletter, etc. No contact will be made for commercial purposes, except the Association Newsletter may include classified advertising for which the Association has been compensated.

Your Access To and Control Over Information

You may opt out of future email contacts from us at any time. You may do so by contacting us via the email address or phone number given on the Association website.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit information via the website, or via email, your information is protected both online and offline. Only the HOA management company personnel who need the information to perform a specific function (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment. Certain information may be summarized or compiled for use by the Management Company or Board of Directors; no personally identifiable information will be included in such summaries.

Updates

Our Privacy Policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page.

If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, you should contact us immediately via telephone at 972 569-8970 or at stonehavenhoa@swbell.net.
