Consent. Parents or Guardians consent to the temporary custody of their Minor Child by Custodian pursuant to the terms of this agreement.

Assumption of Risk. Parent or Guardians realize that there is always a chance that Minor Child will be injured while in the custody of Custodian. In spite of this, Parents and Guardians assume that risk and exonerate Custodian from liability for any accident, injury, or sickness occurring during the time Custodian has custody of Minor child except to the extent that such accident, injury or sickness resulted from the negligence or intentional misconduct of the Temporary Custodian.

Consent to Authorize Medical Care. Parents or Guardians consent that Custodian authorize all first aid or medical care which Custodian in his/her discretion deems necessary for the health or treatment of any illness or injury of Minor Child occurring during this temporary custody.

Hold Harmless. Since Parents or Guardians have recognized the existence of and assumed all risks, Parents or Guardians shall hold Custodian harmless from any suit of liability arising out of any illness, accident or other complication occurring during the temporary custody with regard to Minor Child, including court costs, attorneys' fees and time lost from work in connection with any Court or administrative proceeding arising out of the temporary custody.
