Subject: In the eye sight of God there is no big sin or little sin. SIN IS SIN! Do we have the right to point fingers because we believe that homosexuality is worst than lying remember they both shall burn in the lake of fire.

Greetings in the name of Jesus:

First of all and foremost, I'm not condoning sin, but for whatever the reason is in our flesh we have a tendency to make one greater than the other. For the book says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23), and that's the reason we need to stop making gods out of leaders but instead we should do as 1 Timothy 2:1-2 says. But let us look at what the Apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 12th Chapter said in verse 6, that even being an Apostle he would not glory, but starting in verse 7, he stated there was given to him a thorn in the flesh. This was something that was coming upon his flesh to cause him not to be the man of God that he should be but when he went before the Lord thrice in verse 9, the Lord said, "My grace is sufficient for thee and my strength is made perfect in weakness". For David in Psalm 51 repented to the Lord from his heart and 1 Samuel 16:7 tells us god searches the heart. A person cannot be delivered until it gets into their heart. We must learn that we can't deliver ourselves and that an alcoholic or a drug addicted that goes to rehab but some how or the other goes back into it, but whom the son make, remember make not set, but instead make free is free indeed (John 8:36). We as leaders should teach the true word (Titus 2:1) just as parents train up their children right (Proverbs 22:6). We as individuals should walk right not pretending but doing it out of the heart, serve the Lord in spirit and in truth (John 4:23) and let our minds think on those things which are honest,... (Philippians 4:8) then the word of God will not come back void (Isaiah 55:10-11). But we should know that all things work together for good (Romans 8:28). Last but not least we should all know that the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23) and also ask ourselves "Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?" God forbid! (Romans 6:1-2).
