

Dan Sturdevant

Dan Sturdevant has been involved with the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation since 1999. He is a former board member of the foundation and former chair of the organization's financial affairs committee. He was the foundation's president in 2012-13.

Dan attends the organization's national annual membership meetings and plays a significant role in promoting the story of Lewis and Clark in Missouri and Kansas, and throughout the rest of the Lewis and Clark National Historic Trail. He is an author and speaker on Lewis and Clark subjects.

Dan is the current chairperson of the Southern Prairie Region and the Missouri-Kansas Riverbend Chapter.