

You're Invited to a Lewis and Clark Zoom Talk

Learn about the explorers and Watercraft of Western Exploration and Exploitation from the 1790s to 1840s

Sunday, February 21

The free talk starts at 5 p.m. Eastern Time Zone; 4 p.m. Central; 3 p.m. Mountain; and 2 p.m. Pacific

Painting by John Clymer

You'll learn about:

- The watercraft used by the Lewis and Clark explorers.
- Watercraft used during America's steamboat, military and fur-trading eras.

Presenter: John Fisher

How to register

If you have not previously attended the Lewis and Clark Zoom Talks, registration is required.

To register, send an email to garykimsey55@gmail.com by February 20 and he will email the Zoom link to you

Please include brief information about your interest in the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Please note: If you have attended previous talks, you do not need to register for this or future Zoom talks. You will soon receive an email with the link to attend this Christmas talk.

John is a retired high school teacher who has assembled a most extensive collection of Euro-American artifacts representing what was carried on the Lewis and Clark Expedition. His collection is housed at the Fort Mandan Museum.

John's research articles have been published in historical journals, including We Proceeded On, the journal of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation. Since 2003, John has presented on various subjects across the country to thousands of people.

This Zoom talk is part of a monthly series hosted by the Missouri-Kansas Riverbend Chapter of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation. For information about future talks, visit the chapter's website: lewisandclarkkc.org. Contacts: Dan Sturdevant, (816) 679-5925, or Yvonne Kean, (816) 560-2763.

Check out the LCTHF website—lewisandclark.org—to discover what's happening in the world of Lewis and Clark