THE BROOK DRIED UP BY BISHOP MANNING

1 Kings 17: 5 -7 5 So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

You look for me behind the Altar but you did not see me, your expectations in life can deceive you..

Elijah have an expectation that the raven would feed him morning and evening, but the Brook dried up, is your brook dried up?

Elijah had special delivery everyday..

The Raven brought him bread and flesh daily,

He had FREE doordash service MORNING AND EVENINGS,

But life change,

circumstances change,

Life will change you, it will change you. You know what you want, but what you have is not what you see. You have an expectation that is different from what you have...

God sent the raven to feed Elijah, and Elijah sent the widow to feed him. God will change your life for the better, what do you prefer, a bird to feed you or a woman to feed you, better days are coming... Lets pray....
