Great things
never came

What you're up against
is an indication of the size of your future.
That difficulty was not
sent to destroy you —
It was sent to promote,
increase and strength you.
If you're up against big challenges, you
have a big destiny.

Do not live within the confines of how others define you.

You weren't created to live their life.

you were created to live yours.

You can reignite that fire within & bring the passion back into your goals, dreams, ambitions, careers, & relationships by reclaiming control of your destiny tonight.
