My Dear Sister’s in Christ and Claverism:

As a child, my Mother, taught me to always use the gifts that God gave me and to always be a good Steward to others and the Church. That is why after much prayer and contemplation, I Gracious Lady Lisa A. McLeod, am writing to seek your encouragement and support as I announce my candidacy for Supreme Steward.

I also served as an Area Counselor for Philadelphia. On the District level, I was one of the first Emerging Leaders. I have also chaired many committees and facilitated many workshops.

I have also served on many committees including the By-Laws Committee, the New Candidates Committee and currently the Veterans Committee.

On a professional level, I am currently the Assistant Director of Christian Watch House of Prayer Daycare. Previously I was the Executive Assistant to the Director of the African American Chamber of Commerce of PA, NJ & DE.

I continue to be actively involved in my Parish – Saint Martin De Porres. The Church where I was baptized and taught about Stewardship. I serve wherever I am needed.

I am asking for your support:

- to continue to use the gifts God has given me.
