James Stant - Tequesta Firefighter

On Monday, October 18, 2021 Big Heart Brigade honored Tequesta Firefighter James Stant with a donation to help with expenses to treat his non-Hodgkin T-cell lymphoma.

Stack, a native of Jupiter, volunteered for Palm Beach County Fire before working at Tequesta Fire-Rescue for nearly three years.

Fire officials said Stack is the youngest person in Florida to be diagnosed with this aggressive cancer. But nothing is stopping him from giving his best fight, as his brothers stand by him.

"We're going to get through this together. Keep up the good fight, he's not doing it alone," Fawcett said.

We ask you to visit WPBF, Channel 25 for more informaton on his care and treatment.

Renewal Coalition October Veteran's Retreat

Big Heart Brigade was honored to provide an evening meal for these veterans who proudly served in Afghanistan. Most of these men are 'medically retired' due to injuries while serving in Afghanistan. Please help us thank those who serve us and keep our Nation free. Our partner, Renewal Coalition, gave these 3 Army couples a weekend which entailed lots of fishing, boating, deep sea fishing, beach trips and a wonderful date night at the Dive Bar. They all felt so welcomed and their hearts will be forever touched by the generosity that was shown to them. One of the couples experienced their first ever 'vacation' alone in their 27-years of married life.
