

Guilt-free indulgence

In today's fast-paced environment, it's not easy to get the right balance of nutrients to keep you in peak performance. When snack time comes around, many people opt for the candy machine or eat nutritionally depleted fast food. Now there is a nutritionally sound solution that will satisfy your hunger, boost your energy and indulge your taste buds. Whether you reach for Chocolate Coconut, Chocolate Peanut, Vanilla Almond, Citrus Lemon, or Peanut Butter, you'll get up to 12 grams of protein in each great-tasting protein bar.

Protein is an essential nutrient and we need to be sure we have plenty of it in our diet each day, as it provides energy and helps control hunger. Whether you're watching your weight or just want a healthy, great-tasting snack, these premium bars can help you reach your goals.

Enjoy one to two bars a day for healthy snacking and weight management.
