

PRECIOUS PRESLEY

on September 22, 2005, god's special gift did arrive

5 pounds, 11 ounces, 17 and one-half inches we've never seen such beauty, someone please pinch us

Her hair, her face, her fingers, her toes
Everything about her just seems to glow

Life throws curve balls in this crazy world,
But I hit a home run with my little girl

I touch her, I hold her and swaddle her with care
But most of all, I just smile and stare

If there was anything I could change in this old world,
It would not be my baby girl

She's my angel sent from heaven up above
To watch over me and teach me love

What did I do Lord that you'd so richly bless me,
Thank you for entrusting me with your angel, Presley

Love, Daddy
