"Now therefore fear Jehovah, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt; and serve ye Jehovah" (Jos. 24:14). "This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man" (Eccl. 12:13). "Jehovah of hosts, him shall ye sanctify; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread" (Isa. 8:13). Jesus said, "And be not afraid of them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell" (Mt. 10:28).

There are blessed promises made to those who will fear God. The Psalmist declared, "Oh how great is thy goodness, Which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, Which thou hast wrought for them that take refuge in thee, Before the sons of men!" (Psa. 31:19). Luke wrote, "And his mercy is unto generations and generations On them that fear him" (Lk. 1:50). "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him" (Acts 10:35). We must realize that "In the fear of Jehovah is strong confidence; And his children shall have a place of refuge" (Pro. 14:26) and "The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever" (Psa. 19:9).

On the other hand, Solomon informs us that those who do not fear the Most High are "fools" and "despise wisdom and instruction." Many reject the fear of the Lord, and thus wisdom and instruction, because they fear man more than they do God (Mt. 10:28). Many simply love the world more than they love God (Phil. 3:18-19). Many are like those in the days of Jeremiah, "but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of Jehovah arose against his people, till there was no remedy" (2 Chr. 36:16). Why did the people despise the words of the prophet, and thus, the words of God? They did not fear the Lord!

"Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men" (2 Cor. 5:11), because "our God is a consuming fire" (Heb. 12:29). Truly, "The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge." Remember, fearing God is the whole duty of man (Eccl. 12:13)!
