WRONGING THE SOUL

By Tom Moore

“For whoso findeth me findeth life, And shall obtain favor of Jehovah. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: All they that hate me love death” (Pro. 8:35-36). With these inspired words Solomon informs us why a man is blessed who heeds the teachings of wisdom. The “me” in these two verses is “wisdom.”

The one who diligently seeks after wisdom from above shall find “life.” Solomon earlier declared, “The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge; But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction” (Pro. 1:7). I’m reminded of the word he penned in Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” Jesus said, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn. 14:6). It is easy to see that spiritual life comes to those who seek wisdom, wisdom which comes by our obedience to the will of God. ⇨⇨

SUN. February 26th..... Marge Jordan

By seeking after wisdom we receive the greatest blessing of all – the favor of Jehovah. There can be no sweeter words than a man could hear than, “Well done, good and faithful servant” (Mt. 25:21).

Those who sin against wisdom, those who refuse wisdom, “wrongeth his own soul,” and as a result “love death.” Sin brings punishment for “the soul that sinneth, it shall die” (Eze. 18:4). Sin separates us from God, “Behold, Jehovah's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, so that he will not hear.” (Isa. 59:1-2). Thus, one who sins by not seeking after wisdom “loves death” because they love the things that lead to both temporal and spiritual death. We sin against wisdom by not desiring her, by seeking her, by not listening to her, and by not following her instructions.

It would do us a great deal of good to consider seriously these words of our Lord, “No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon” (Mt. 6:24).

Who are you seeking after: wisdom or death?
