WHY SHOULD WE READ THE BIBLE?

By Tom Moore

Consider the books of the New Testament and what will be gained by carefully reading them continually throughout our life. The books of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John provide us with the perfect example in all things to follow – Jesus Christ.

The book of Acts informs us of what to do to be saved. The book of 1 Corinthians helps us to deal with church problems. 2 Corinthians gives us a message of comfort. The epistle of Galatians proves that the Law of Moses cannot justify us. Ephesians paints a beautiful picture of the church. The letter to the Philippians gives us reason for joy, and Colossians tells us that Christ should be the center and focus of our lives.

The books of 1 and 2 Thessalonians urge us to endure until Christ returns. The letters to Timothy and Titus give the qualifications and work of elders and preachers. The Hebrew writer declares the superiority of Christ. The epistle of James warns us about having an inactive faith, and 1 and 2 Peter tells us of the need to be strong in faith. The books of 1, 2 and 3 John teach us concerning love. Jude emphasizes contending for the faith. The book of Revelation speaks of the promise of victory in Christ.

The Bible contains the information we need to go to heaven. It is easy to see, then, why we need to be daily Bible readers. Make the time to read your Bible! You will be blessed as a result.
