THE WORD THAT WAS GOD #2

Tom Moore

Jesus is called the "Word" because He is the revelation and the expressed idea of deity. The Hebrew writer expresses this thought in this fashion, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high" (Hebrews 1:1-3). Thus, Jesus is the Word - the revelation and expression of God. Jesus is the Word because He is the means by which the Father communicates His will and delivers His commands to His creation.

We now understand more fully the words of Jesus, "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day" (John 12:48). Why will we be judged by the words of Christ? Because the Word, Jesus Christ, is the oracle of the will of deity. We comprehend more precisely than Jesus' proclamation, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). Jesus also said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24). The Word, God's revelation to man, is the only means through which we can come to the Father.

The Word was not just a voice as a prophet or preacher would be, for John the Baptizer said he was not worthy to even untie the sandals of Jesus (John 1:27). The Word is the inward conception of the mind of God, and a voice (such as John; John 1:23) is but a sign of intention. The Word is the revealer and interpreter of the hidden things of the Father and the voice of all He manifests to the world, accomplishing the redemption of all obedient mankind. Truly, "grace and truth came through Jesus Christ" (John 1:17).
