A MAN AFTER GOD'S OWN HEART

By Tom Moore

In Paul's sermon at Antioch, in which he briefly recounts the history of Israel, he refers to the statement made by God concerning David, "And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfill all my will" (Acts 13:22; cf. 1 Sam. 13:13-14). This beautiful compliment, "a man after My own heart," is one that should characterize every person who wears the name of Christ.

David was an ancestor of Christ according to the flesh (2 Sam. 7:12-16). David also possessed many of the attitudes that were later perfected by Christ, and that should characterize all Christians. In this study we will consider some of these attitudes that David had, see the similarities between his attitudes and those of Christ, and encourage all who are Christians to have the same so that we too might be people "after God's own heart."

David loved the word of God. David said, "Oh how I love I thy law" (Psa. 119:97). This psalm certainly expresses David's sentiment as one who had a great love for God's Word. David also said, "And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes" (Psa. 119:47-48). This love for God's Word was due to the fact that it protected him from sin (Psa. 119:11), revived him in affliction (Psa. 119:50), and gave him great peace of mind (Psa. 119:165). Jesus loved the word of God as was evident from His frequent quotation of it, His study of it, even from a youth (Lk. 2:47), and His use of it in time of temptation (Mt. 4:4, 7, 10). How is our love for the word of God? ⇨⇨⇨

LOVE AND SYMPATHY

To the family of Dean Dyer
In the loss of her brother, Wayne Lewis.
Wayne passed away Saturday evening in Spanish Fort, Tx. Funeral services will be private due to the Covid 19 precautions.

David loved to pray. "I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live" (Psa. 116:1-2). His love for prayer was based upon the fact God had answered him before (Psa. 116:1-2), had greatly blessed him (Psa. 116:12-13), and that prayer brought God close to him (Psa. 145:18). Jesus was also a lover of prayer. He made it a point to often slip away to pray privately (Lk. 5:16). In times of greatest trial, Jesus resorted to prayer (Mt. 26:36-44; Lk. 23:34; Mt. 27:46; Lk. 23:46). How is our prayer life? Have we found it to be a source of peace (Phil. 4:6-7)? Do we "pray without ceasing" (The. 5:17)?

David loved to praise God. "Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments" (Psa. 119:164). He praised God because of His righteous judgments. He praised God because of His greatness and loving kindness (Psa. 95:1-7). David was determined to sing praises as long as he lived (Psa. 104:33). Jesus also loved to praise God - As He did on one occasion publicly in prayer (Mt. 11:25-26), and as He did with His disciples in song (Mt. 26:30). Do we love to praise God? Do we delight in singing praises to God in song? Do we take time to praise God in our prayers?

David loved unity among brethren. "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity" (Psa. 133:1). David knew the value of good friendship and unity, as exemplified in the relationship he had with Jonathan (1 Sam. 18:1). He also knew the terrible pain of division within a family (cf. his sons, Ammon and Absalom - 2 Sam. 13). Jesus also loved unity. He prayed diligently that His disciples might be one (Jn. 17:20-23). He died on the cross that there might be unity (Eph. 2:13-16). Do we love unity enough to pay the price needed? By diligently displaying the proper attitudes necessary to preserve the unity Christ has accomplished through His death (Eph. 4:1-3). By marking those who needlessly cause division (Rom. 16:17)?

David hated every false way. "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way" (Psa. 119:104). His hatred was based upon his understanding of God's precepts (Psa. 119:104). His hatred affected his selection of activities and friends (Psa. 101:3-4, 6-7). Jesus also hated error and false ways as manifested in His driving the moneychangers out of the temple (Mt. 21:12-13), and His denunciation of the hypocritical Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers (Mt. 23:13-36). What is our attitude toward false ways? Are we soft on error or compromising? Or do we realize that we are involved in a "battle" over the souls of men, and are not to think lightly of that which is false (2 Cor. 10:3-5)? While we are to love the sinner, we must hate the sin (Eph. 4:15).

Are you a man after God's own heart?
