THE MULTITUDE OF COUNSELORS

By Tom Moore

Solomon, with great wisdom, declares, "Where there is no counsel, the people fall; But in the multitude of counselors there is safety" (Pro. 11:14). Solomon very clearly informs us that those who consult good and reliable counsel will greatly benefit. Solomon also said, "Without counsel, plans go awry, But in the multitude of counselors they are established" (Pro. 15:22), and "for by wise counsel you will wage your own war, And in a multitude of counselors there is safety" (Pro. 24:6).

It should be very apparent the wisdom in having a multitude of counselors. This is surely one reason the Lord required that there be a PLURALITY of shepherds in the eldership of each congregation (Acts 14:23). In this multitude of men there is to be no changing of God's word - for no man, nor a multitude of men, have the authority to change God's word. There is, though, safety in a multitude of counselors for knowledgeable men of wisdom will rely on one another to make sure they lead the congregation in the ways of righteousness.

LOVE AND SYMPATHY

To the family of Maudine Tubbs. Maudine passed away Wednesday, May 6th at the Focused Care facility. Her services will be private on Thursday, May 14th.

Maudine, as well as Bobby Thompson will surely be missed in our Sunday Afternoon Nursing Home services.

It is always wise to draw from the experience of others who are wiser and more knowledgeable than we. There is great benefit in gleaning from the writings of such men as Guy N. Woods, G. K. Wallace, N.B. Hardeman and H. Leo Boles - preachers of the past who we should be indebted to for their wisdom and examples in standing for truth.

There are many present day preachers possessing the hoary head of wisdom that we need to tap into. Solomon declared, "You shall rise before the gray [hoary; ASV, KJV] headed and honor the presence of an old man, and fear your God: I am the LORD" (Lev. 19:32). There are times when we need to do a lot less talking and a lot more listening. Solomon also taught, "The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, But he who heeds counsel is wise" (Pro. 12:15), and "by pride comes nothing but strife, But with the well-advised is wisdom" (Pro. 13:10).

It is imperative that we always be as those of Berea in the apostle Paul's day - for "they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so" (Acts 17:11). We need to heed the counsel of the older and wiser, but we must always compare that instruction to the word of God.

It is always of great value to check out our beliefs with those who are older and wiser, and if there is a discrepancy - we need to study harder and more diligently to see where the discrepancy lies. Let us not be lazy and unwise - not studying for ourselves; but, neither should we forsake the benefit that can come through a multitude of wise counsel.
