LIMPING ALONG

By Tom Moore

“And Elijah came near unto all the people, and said, How long go ye limping between the two sides? if Jehovah be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word”
(1 Kgs. 18:21).

When it comes to God, we will not make much progress if we go “limping between two sides” [or, hesitate between two opinions - NAS]. There are difficulties we must overcome in the course of our journey toward God, and those difficulties will not be overcome if we have not made up our minds and committed ourselves to making the journey. The journey will be lined with the failures of those who wavered — those who were not sure what their opinion was as to the importance of God - and were not sure whether devoting themselves to Jehovah was something they really wanted to do.

Some excursions in life do not require any definite goal or decisiveness on our part. For some, one of life's great joys is the joy of a scenic drive, and there are times when they set out on a drive without any notion of where they want to go. It's enjoyable just to drive and look. The destination might change during the drive, and side trips can easily be taken. On such a drive, a little haphazardness does not hurt; it may even enhance the pleasure of the journey.

THANK YOU NOTE

God Bless you,

Staff at Hamilton Healthcare Ctr.

But haphazard movement will not lead us to heaven. We will not reach God by casually driving through life admiring the scenery. God is the God of those who "seek after him" (Heb. 11:6), and that means we must make a conscious decision to make this journey. If heaven is our goal, we will not make a move in that direction if we are not consciously and actively reaching for God.

In the end, there will be only two groups of people. The dividing line will not be between the fortunate and the unfortunate, or between those who had it easy and those who had it hard - it will be between those who decided to set their sails toward heaven and those who did not. When "every wind of doctrine" (Eph. 4:14) is gusting every which direction, it's the set of our sails that will get us home.

"One ship drives east and another west,
with the self-same winds that blow;
'tis the set of the sails and not the gales
that determines where they go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways
of fate, as we voyage along through life;
'tis the set of a soul that decides its goal
- and not the calm or the strife."
