UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

By Tom Moore

"And this, not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God" (2 Cor. 8:5).

To seek God sincerely is to give ourselves to Him completely. The good things that come from life in God come to those who yield themselves to Him entirely. "But seek ye FIRST his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Mt. 6:33). If we hold back part of our heart or are lukewarm in our pledge to Him, we will miss the unique blessings that flow from commitment. "But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully" (2 Cor. 9:6).

"A living sacrifice" is the expression Paul used to characterize the yielding of ourselves to God: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual [reasonable - KJV] service" (Rom. 12:1). In the Law of Moses, animals that were sacrificed to God had to be slain. It was not possible for the worshiper to retain the living animal for himself and still give a part of it to the Lord. The very life of the animal itself had to be given. Corresponding to those sacrifices, our offering must be total. Although ours is a "living" sacrifice, the gift must be no less complete than if our bodies were to be slain. God deserves no less than our all, both inwardly and outwardly.

SUGGESTION BOX

If you have a suggestion, be sure and write it down and put it in the wooden box in the foyer. If you see something in the building that needs attention, such as changing a light bulb or any task that needs to be done, write it down and put it in the box.

A partial approach of committing ourselves to the Lord is not only giving God less than He deserves, it also produces for us great difficulty and frustration. Just as a timid soul can't leap a large chasm by taking two medium-sized jumps, the requirements of our new life can't be met by the half-hearted efforts of our old mind. If we try to hang on to all that we think is "ours" and give God only enough of our outward behavior to get us to heaven, we are attempting the impossible.

The old self will never be happy having to give up parts of itself to God. Since it never relinquishes its own desires except when forced to do so, the old self will never find Jesus' yoke "easy" and His burden "light" (Mt. 11:30). So the old self must die and a new self must come to life. Thus, Paul said, "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me" (Gal. 2:20). When that happens, we will then find that the Lord's "commandments are not burdensome" (1 Jn. 5:3).

"The Christian way is different: harder, and easier. Christ says, 'Give me All. I don't want so much of your time and so much of your money and so much of your work: I want You. I have not come to torment your natural self, but to kill it. No half-measures are any good'" (C. S. Lewis).

May we all sing with true commitment, "All to Jesus I surrender - I surrender all!"
