THIS WE SEEK: TO BE MADE PLEASING TO GOD

By Tom Moore

"The meek shall eat and be satisfied; They shall praise Jehovah that seek after him: Let your heart live forever" (Psa. 22:26).

It is possible for our hungry souls to be satisfied by God. When we seek Him and find Him, a profound satisfaction is available to us, but it is not what many people expect whose first thought is for what they themselves wish to receive. It is a satisfaction that comes from what David called "praise." Our hearts were made to enjoy God by giving joy to Him, and this we do by expressing our adoration for what He has done — and can do.

We are to seek God diligently, and having sought and found Him we are to serve Him obediently and faithfully. But the emphasis must be kept on God. Even those scriptural exhortations that urge us to be careful about our obedience do so within the context of God's work rather than our own:

SUGGESTION BOX

If you have a suggestion, be sure and write it down and put it in the wooden box in the foyer. If you see something in the building that needs attention, such as changing a light bulb or any task that needs to be done, write it down and put it in the box.

“So then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who worketh in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure” (Phil. 2:12-13).

Ultimately, we seek God because we long to be persons who please Him. Having been made by Him in His image, we find that this longing has been planted deep within us. But we are creatures broken by our own sin; we cannot make ourselves into what we long to be. So the thing that we desire is to be remade — by God Himself — into persons who please Him. We understand that the highest holiness to which we may aspire is the yielding of ourselves to Him so that He can do His good pleasure through us. Only we can make this choice (and our actions will be a fair indication of whether we have done so), but our focal point, first and last, must be simply God Himself.

The Hebrew writer prayed for his Christian readers: “Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do his will, working in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory for ever and ever” (Heb. 13:20-21). For personal beings, the highest and sweetest joy of all is to give joy to the Person from whom our lives have come. This is what we are to seek.

THANK YOU NOTE

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Thank you so very much for the beautiful card and get well wishes. Your thoughts and prayers are very special to us! Charles is improving slowly, but he will be as good as new soon.

With love,
Charles & Sue Buck
