Thus Saith the Lord

THE GOD OF WOKE

By Jeff Sweeten

It is difficult to understand the level of madness and psychosis necessary to harm a child. When a Moabite king discovered his battle was lost, he killed his own son and offered him up as a burnt offering “upon the wall” of his stronghold, a spectacle that repulsed the Jewish army (2 Kings 3:27) but common in the practice of offering children to the Moabite god, Chemosh. The god, Molech of the Ammonites, however, was especially cruel (cf. Leviticus 18:20; 20:4; Jeremiah 32:35). The hollowed-out bronze statue of a human body topped with the head of bull, whose belly was hollowed out to accommodate a roaring fire that made the statue glow. With arms outstretched and hands palms up, the priest placed the sacrificial infant into its glowing grasp and the babe was gruesomely fried alive. Even the Molech faithful struggled with such barbarous brutality as there were priests tasked with beating loudly on drums in order to drown out the pitiful screams of the dying child so that some Molech-worshiping mother would not have second thoughts.

Bible students often read Old Testament historical accounts such as these numb-struck at the level of depravity to which humanity can descend and yet here we are in our current culture witnessing parents bowing to the god, WOKE, indoctrinating their children with “gender dysphoria” and subjecting them to surgical and chemical disfigurement. What kind of parent is it that would willingly mutilate, maim or poison their precious, innocent little children, leaving them scarred for life; physical, mentally and psychologically.

Idol worship is not dead. The illogical and unconscionable practice of worshiping self (#it’s always all about me) has reached new levels of repugnance in our country but, to quote a very wise man, “That which has been is what will be, that which is done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun” (Ecclesiastes 1:9). If left unchecked, especially when supported by our government, they will come for your children, too.

The remedy for this plague is amazingly simple and why more do not see it is a testament to willful blindness (cf. Matthew 13:15). Again, from the wise man, Solomon: “Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people” (Proverbs 14:34). When a people, en masse, grow tired of the political idiocy, the promotion of abominable perversions and the miniscule, minority fringe of our culture’s dysfunctional commanding adherence to their socially destructive agenda (prolifically promoted by our mainstream media) and go back to a Thus Saith the Lord, these bullies will be rebuked and retreat. We must grow a spine and we must let our voice be heard. Patriotic, Godloving Americans at the polling booths, faithful preachers and courageous memberships at churches, administrators and staff in our schools and individuals in our neighborhoods must stand with a calm, respectful but firm verbal, visible and vehement rebuff. The message must be clear: ungodly perversions are not welcome in this Godfearing nation.
