

Awana Ministry Conference Kettering Ohio

Don & Nancy Estep, Awana Missionaries in Illinois

Leaving A Ministry Footprint Insight and ways to make sure we leave a long lasting spiritual impression on those we minister to through our club program.

How To Be A Champion Leader In A Challenging Culture Key building blocks to becoming an effective leader as we deal with a culture against us.

Serving With A Shepherd's Heart Insight and principles from the Word of God on helping a leader maintain and practice ministering to those through their club with a heartbeat of a shepherd.

10 Reasons Why Clubbers Quit Coming To Club Looking at reasons why clubbers stop coming and looking at what steps we can take to correct it.

David Boucher, Pastor of Family Ministry, Patterson Park Church

Discipling Your Children at Home How churches can partner with parents and encourage them as they disciple their children.

Be A Family on Mission Helping your clubbers and their families learn about missions, then get involved through outreach, prayers, communication, and giving.

Janet Boucher, Intervention Specialist, Greene County

Understand Every Special Needs Child Each child is special and wonderfully made with unique skills, preferences, interests, needs and talents; learn how to leverage strengths and build on weaknesses that will bring a higher quality of life to themselves and the people they are with.

Starting A Special Needs Ministry at your Church Practical steps and methods to implement an outreach ministry to your community.

Tom & Jill Neace, Awana Commanders, First Baptist Church Franklin

Attracting More Kids! How to increase attendance, reach more kids, encourage them to attend every week. Special events, theme nights, inviting visitors.

Child Protection Practical ways to protect the kids, the workers, and your church.

Using Technology in Your Awana Club Screen time can be used to build the kingdom! Apps, websites, blogs, social media.

Game Time That Rocks! Build excitement, keep the kids wondering what will happen next!

Brian Hartsell, Awana Commander, Washington Heights Baptist Church

Verse-A-Thon Kids learn more verses and help reach more kids; what could be better! Learn more about the resources available to help you organize and conduct your verse-a-thon, and make it fun for everyone!

Leading Your Club How to lead and manage your club; organization, communication, shepherding your workers, discipling both kids and adults.

Tara Holland, Awana Commander, North Huber Heights Baptist Church

Redemptive Discipline Learn how to discipline a child in a way that addresses the heart not only a behavior. God deals with the heart and we see lasting change with hearts turned towards Him. If behavior is all that is addressed we are in danger of raising “Pharisees”.

Teen Ministry Brainstorming Session How to serve the teens at your church. Share ideas, get your questions answered.

Bill Glenning, Awana Commander, Patterson Park Church

Basic Training The core principles of Awana, presenting the gospel with clarity, club night organization.

Basic Training Encouraging structure and discipline, best principles for game time & large group time

Paulette Glenning, Awana Commander, Patterson Park Church

Heather Shoettmer, Sparks Director, Patterson Park Church

Sparks Beyond Basics Principles to help you reach Sparks with the gospel and train them to serve the Lord. Making handbook time the best 30 minutes of the week for your Sparks.

Ken & Melinda Cogley, Awana Missionaries in Ohio

T&T Beyond Basics Building relationships as you disciple young people in T&T, making effective use of your handbook time.

Bible Memorization Tools & Techniques Much more than rote repetition, helping kids learn their verses so they stick, now and throughout their lifetime.

Record Keeping Solutions Software? Paper? Secretary? Leaders? Directors? Discover and share the best ways to track the progress of our clubbers and recognize their achievements!

Steve & Pam Schenk, Awana missionaries in Ohio

Puggles & Cubbies Beyond Basics Helping pre-school kids thrive at your church.

Options For Your Club: T&T and Sparks Organizing your club, adapting your small groups, using your facility in the best way possible.